

PT. DENSO INDONESIA is leading manufacturing of automotive parts which are produced by high technology, eco-friendly, and efficient energy consumption.

In order to reduce and maintain energy usage & environmental emission, Company realize that energy saving activity (ESA) as one of important activity on whole company activity by agreeing to have committed as follows :

1. Implement & develop energy management system suitably by regarding energy saving as one important matter to comply with laws & other related regulations.
2. Improve efficiency of energy usage continuously with appropriate technology and good guideline.
3. Set the annual energy saving action plan and target, and disseminate to all associates to get their right understanding and action
4. Regard that energy saving is the obligation & responsibility of all employees, both managerial level & operational level. All people have to cooperate to complete the countermeasure, monitor the result, & report to energy saving management committee
5. Support the essential resources to promote activity, e.g. human resources, budget, working time, training support, improvement suggestion activity, etc, to gain efficient improvement
6. Review and revise the policy, target, and action plan every year by management and energy management committee.

Announcement on _____ 2016

.....
(Mr. Yutaka Yamanouchi)
President Director
PT. DENSO INDONESIA

.....
(Mr. Antonius Hartoyo)
Director in Charge
PT. DENSO INDONESIA